

Catalogue of Youth Disaster Preparedness Education Resources

The Catalogue of Youth Disaster Preparedness Education Resources was created to assist individuals and organizations with locating preparedness resources that are tailored to children and youth. All information provided here comes directly from the entities sponsoring each program. We need your help to try to make this resource as comprehensive as possible. If you know of any programs or resources that would add to this compendium please forward it to citizencorps@dhs.gov. Thank you.

9-1-1 for Kids

Pre-K—Adult

<http://www.911forkids.com>

9-1-1 for Kids has developed educational tools to help reduce the high number of non-emergency calls made to 9-1-1. Their products are categorized by grade level and include videos featuring age-appropriate characters, on-line games, and classroom kits. There is a guide available for educators and parents that describes various hazards and provides “Safety Messages for Kids” and “Action Steps for Adults.” A program lesson plan is also included, complete with a list of materials, prompts, and suggested activities to do with children after the lesson is delivered. An on-line store allows customers to order materials such as stickers, wallet safety cards, certificates, plush toys, and apparel.

Alabama: Be Ready Camp

6th Grade

<http://www.bereadycamp.org>

Be Ready Camp was created to teach Alabama’s 6th graders about disaster preparedness and response. Topics range from fire safety to light search and rescue. The camp culminates with a mock disaster, where the campers work side by side with first responders to respond to a simulated plane crash. Using the skills learned during the week, such as medical triage and light search and rescue, the 6th graders are able to triage and prioritize disaster victims and move them out of harm’s way. In addition, the campers are able to plan out their response by working together as a team by efficiently delegating tasks to the suitable person and maintaining strong communication with each other. All Alabama residents entering the 5th grade are eligible to attend and participants are chosen through a competitive application process.

American Red Cross: Masters of Disaster

K–8th Grade

<http://www.redcross.org/disaster/masters/>

The American Red Cross Masters of Disaster® curriculum is centered on a series of ready-to-go lesson plans that help organizations educate youth about important disaster safety and preparedness information. Masters of Disaster contains lessons, activities, and demonstrations on disaster-related topics that organizations can incorporate into daily or thematic programming. The curriculum is non-sequential, allowing organizers to choose the lesson plans that best fit into their programming. The Masters of Disaster curriculum materials meet national educational standards and are specifically tailored for lower elementary (K–2), upper elementary (3–5) and middle school (6–8) classes.

The education on essential preparedness skills that students receive through the Masters of Disaster program will carry them through life. Lessons are enjoyable and interactive, ensuring that children are having fun while internalizing important life skills through building capabilities in Mathematics, Language Arts, Social Studies, and Science.

All across the country, through The American Red Cross, young people are trained to become involved in many areas of Red Cross Disaster Services, including community disaster education, disaster preparation in their local community, and disaster response through Red Cross disaster action teams and youth disaster corps. The Red Cross conducts school-related activities, including fundraising, organizing blood drives, providing international assistance, and teaching disaster preparedness and HIV/AIDS prevention and awareness.

Boy Scouts: Emergency Preparedness Merit Badge

Ages 11-17

<http://www.boyscouttrail.com/boy-scouts/meritbadges/emergencypreparedness.asp>

The Boy Scout Emergency Preparedness Merit Badge includes learning skills for preparedness, response, recovery and mitigation for emergency situations ranging from home emergencies, camping accidents, natural disasters, boating accidents, and power plant accidents. The badge requirements also include developing plans and checklists and working with others to help them become prepared.

Civil Air Patrol: Teen Cadet Program

Ages 12–18

<http://www.gocivilairpatrol.com/html/teens.htm>

The U.S. Air Force Auxiliary, the Civil Air Patrol (CAP) runs a teen cadet program for youth aged 12-18. Cadets fly, learn to lead, hike, camp, get in shape, and push themselves. The program features instruction in the principles of aviation and aerospace flight, and offers cadet encampments with activities in emergency services, engineering, technology, physical fitness, teambuilding, and flight training. The CAP Teen program can help prepare youth for career in aviation, space, or the military. About 10% of the cadets at the U.S. Air Force Academy got their start in CAP. Cadets meet 2 hours per week and one Saturday per month, on average, and also have opportunities to attend leadership encampments, career academies, and international exchanges during the summer.

Corporation for National and Community Service: Learn and Serve America

K–Adult

<http://www.learnandserve.gov/about/programs/index.asp>

The Corporation for National and Community Service includes Learn and Serve America, which allows children to participate in service-learning activities, and offers a unique opportunity for them to get involved by combining community service projects with classroom learning. Service-learning engages students in the educational process, using what they learn in the classroom to solve real-life problems. Learn and Serve America provides direct and indirect support to K–12 schools, community groups and higher education institutions to facilitate service-learning projects. SERVENet allows volunteers to find opportunities in their communities.

Department of Education: Service Learning and Volunteer Opportunities

K–Adult

<http://www.ed.gov/students/involve/service/edpicks/jhtml?src=ln>

The Department of Education’s website offers links to a number of resources and opportunities that youth can use to get involved in their communities. For example, through AmeriCorps, young volunteers can find national service programs that provide opportunities to tutor and mentor youth, build affordable housing, teach computer skills, clean parks and streams, run after-school programs, and help communities respond to disasters.

Delaware School Disaster Preparedness Program

6th–12th Grade

<http://www.delawarecitizencorps.org/schools>

The Delaware Disaster Preparedness Program was developed by Delaware Citizen Corps, American Red Cross of the Delmarva Peninsula, Public Health Preparedness, Retired Senior Volunteer Program, and Delaware Emergency Management. The goal of the program is to present students with a common message about the importance of preparing for all hazards. The program is delivered in schools by the Delaware State Police’s School Resource Officers and Youth Aid Officers. The initiative was first implemented in 2009 at the beginning of the school year, during National Preparedness Month. Currently, the program is composed of a series of five videos, classroom discussion guide, and covers a variety of topics, including “Developing a Family Plan,” “Making a Disaster Kit,” “Shelter- in- Place,” and “Evacuation Resources.”

Discovery Education: Ready Classroom

K–8th Grade

<http://readyclassroom.discoveryeducation.com/#/map>

In 2009, Discovery Education launched Ready Classroom, an online educational curriculum program. The program provides K-8 teachers with resources to integrate natural disaster preparedness information into their curriculum. The online resource, www.discoveryeducation.com/readyclassroom, offers teachers activities, lesson plans and multimedia tools that teach students how natural disasters develop and inspires them to build their own emergency preparedness plans with their families.

Environmental Protection Agency

K–12th Grade

<http://www.epa.gov/kids>

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) offers opportunities for children and youth are broken into three tiers, organized by age. The first is the Environmental Kids Club, for ages 4–10. This program teaches younger children about their environment, and focuses on specific topics including plants and animals, air, water, garbage and recycling, hazardous chemical spills, and extreme weather events. The second is the EPA Student Center, which is targeted towards children ages 10–14. This program features environmental club projects, assistance with careers, internships and scholarships, environmental youth awards, and activities. Students can learn about ecosystems, human health, waste and recycling, chemical spills, water, conservation, air, weather, and other environmental basics. The final tier is the High School Environmental Center, which features summer student employment opportunities and offers the same avenues for involvement as the Student Center. The High School Environmental Center also offers an environmental dictionary, information on environmental laws, and access to the EPA newsroom, publications, and other information sources. The High School Environmental Center features information on issues related to air, water, waste and recycling, ecosystems, conservation, health and safety, extreme weather, and community environmental issues.

Extension Disaster Education Network

1st–5th Grade

<http://news.uns.purdue.edu/html3month/2004/041104.Cain.disasterdave.html>

The Extension Disaster Education Network (EDEN) links Extension educators from across the U.S. and various disciplines, enabling them to use and share resources to reduce the impact of disasters. From food safety to field safety, from physical to psychological, and from government to community development, EDEN has resources you can use.

One resource developed by EDEN member Purdue University Extension is "Disaster Dave's Misadventures," an educational computer activity. The focus of the program is to teach disaster-readiness skills in a fun and entertaining fashion. This is done through Disaster Dave, whom students help navigate through a variety of natural and other disasters. From blizzards to tornadoes, from hazardous materials spills to national security emergencies, Disaster Dave's fictional community is either destroyed or spared, depending upon the skills and knowledge of the player.

FEMA for Kids

K–6th Grade

<http://www.fema.gov/kids/>

The FEMA for Kids website features disaster-related games, quizzes, stories, photos, and cartoons, and provides children with the opportunity to earn a Disaster Action Kid certification. The site also offers information for children, parents, and teachers on preparing for disasters and coping with the aftermath, including guidance on how to create a supply kit and disaster plan. The site offers access to an email server which regularly provides disaster news and information. Kids are also able to get information on ongoing disasters all over the country via an interactive map. Specific information is provided on preparing for and reacting to hurricanes, tornadoes, earthquakes, volcanoes, floods, tsunamis, thunderstorms, wildfires, winter storms, and terrorism.

FEMA: Teen Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) Training

7th–12th Grade

<http://www.teencert.org>

Teen CERT provides basic CERT training to students in their high schools. The program gives students emergency and leadership skills, creates an emergency response asset for schools, creates an avenue to deliver the preparedness message to teens' families and parents, creates a culture of preparedness among tomorrow's community leaders, and promotes connection to local sponsoring agencies, including the fire department, law enforcement, and emergency management. Teen CERT currently operates in over 100 school districts nationwide.

FEMA: Ready Kids

Ages 8–12

<http://www.ready.gov/kids/home.html>

Ready Kids is a component of the Department of Homeland Security Ready.gov initiative and provides guidance on creating an emergency preparedness kit and plan, as well as specific information on tornadoes, earthquakes, fire emergencies, flooding, tsunamis, and hurricanes, and general information on terrorism. Kids are able to earn a certification from Readiness U, and are offered disaster-related games, quizzes, and comic strips. The site also features information for parents and teachers targeted towards emergency planning and coping with disaster and its aftermath.

FEMA: Student Tools for Emergency Planning

4th–5th Grade

<http://www.riema.ri.gov/step/>

Student Tools for Emergency Planning (STEP) is designed to teach 5th graders what to do in emergency situations, and how to create emergency kits and develop family communication plans. STEP requires only 1 hour of instructional time during the school year, but offers up to 15 hours of optional materials that align with national and state standards. Instructional materials for teachers include student handouts, instructional booklets, and “The Adventures of the Disaster Dudes” video. This video shows students playing a game based on disaster preparedness and is accompanied by discussion points for teachers to cover after showing the video. The website includes links for teachers (e.g., to sample letters to families and discussion topics), and students (e.g., a list of emergency kit contents and family communication plan cards). There are links to supplemental materials, as well, including emergency role play scenarios and a student reading list.

Fire Corps

K–Adult

<http://www.firecorps.org>

The Fire Corps offers fire prevention and life-safety education and training for students to assist in emergency response efforts at their schools and in their communities. The Corps asks its volunteers to teach youth about their vital role in making communities safer, encouraging them to have pride in their country, gain an understanding of their civic duty, and accept personal responsibility for their well-being as an active member of the community.

Firefacts.org

K–6th Grade

<http://www.firefacts.org>

Firefacts.org is an interactive website to teach fire safety to children in grades K through 6. The program features the Fire Safety Learning System CD for use in schools, and activities for kids to complete on their own, including coloring books, word puzzles, and online games. There are also resources for parents and caregivers to promote fire safety and awareness in the home.

Girl Scouts: “Be Prepared!” Emergency Preparedness Patch

K—12th Grade

<http://www.gscnc.org/dhs.html>

Developed in conjunction with FEMA’s Citizen Corps, the Girl Scout Council of the Nation’s Capital created the “Be Prepared!” Emergency Preparedness Patch program to equip Girl Scouts with skills to protect their families, friends and communities when disaster strikes. The patch program prepares Girl Scouts of all ages to identify local risks and potential emergencies, connect with local community service agencies, understand hazards and appropriate protective actions, learn local alerts and warning systems, prepare themselves and their family, deal with emotional responses to an emergency, discover how to get trained and become involved in community emergency planning, and explore additional resources. The Leader’s Guide can be downloaded from the website.

Home Fire Sprinkler Coalition: Sprinkler Smarts

K–8th Grade

<http://www.sprinklersmarts.org>

Sprinkler Smarts is a website that teaches kids how fire sprinklers and smoke alarms help keep families safe. Sprinkler Smarts has separate websites for kids in grades K–5 and 6–8. The site offers games that test kids’ knowledge and information, and includes other resources for teachers, parents, and fire departments.

Home Safety Council: Code Red Rover

K–1st Grade

<http://www.coderedrover.org/>

The Home Safety Council's Code Red Rover program is an online resource designed for parents and educators of children in grades K-1. The program provides twelve online games, downloadable materials for use in the classroom or at home, as well as lesson plans and materials in Spanish. Lesson plans available include slips and falls, poisoning, and fire and burns.

Home Safety Council: Get Ready with Freddie!

K–1st Grade

http://www.homesafetycouncil.org/AboutUs/Programs/pr\_wr\_w005.asp

The Home Safety Council's Get Ready with Freddie! program was first distributed to classrooms in August 2007 and to date, it has been delivered to over 75,000 classrooms around the country, reaching 13 million teachers, students, and families. The program is focused around Freddie Flashlight, the long-time sidekick of the Home Safety Council's mascot, Rover the Home Safety Hound. Freddie takes center stage in this program, focusing on emergency preparedness. Students learn to develop a communications plan and assemble "Ready-to-Go" and "Ready-to-Stay" preparedness kits for their homes. Free downloadable resources include activity book, videos, lesson plans for teachers, student worksheets, a letter for parents and checklists, and a local program evaluation form.

Learning for Life: Exploring—Law Enforcement

Ages 14–21

<http://www.learningforlife.org/exploring/lawenforcement/>

Law Enforcement Exploring is a worksite-based program for young men and women who have completed the eighth grade and are 14 years of age, or are 15 years of age but have not yet reached their 21st birthday.

Law Enforcement Explorer posts help youth to gain insight into a variety of programs that offer hands-on career activities. For young men and women who are interested in careers in the field of law enforcement, Exploring offers experiential learning with lots of fun-filled, hands-on activities that promote the growth and development of adolescent youth.

Medical Reserve Corps

K–Adult

<http://www.medicalreservecorps.gov>

Medical Reserve Corps (MRC) units are community-based and function as a way to locally organize and utilize volunteers who want to donate their time and expertise to prepare for and respond to emergencies and promote healthy living throughout the year. MRC volunteers supplement existing emergency and public health resources.

MRC volunteers provide support for youth and school health education programs including promoting flu prevention hygiene, CPR and First Aid training, school blood drives.

National Association for Search and Rescue: Hug-a-Tree and Survive Program

2nd–5th Grade

http://www.nasar.org/nasar/hug\_a\_tree\_program.php

This educational program teaches children between the ages of 7 and 11 basic and vital survival principles and simple ways to survive in the woods if they become lost. The Hug-a-Tree and Survive program includes an introduction, video presentation, and suggestions and demonstrations, all led by a trained presenter. The program also includes handouts for parents and activity books for kids.

National Crime Prevention Council: McGruff Club

1st–5th Grade

<http://www.mcgruff.org>

The McGruff Club is a program for children between the ages of 6 and 10 that promotes crime prevention and safety education. Children are encouraged to become engaged in their communities in service projects and to learn about safety. Specifically, children learn what they can do to stay safe and to prevent crime and violence in their communities. Children meet weekly for 30 to 45 minutes exploring the topics of safe and unsafe neighborhoods, conflict management, bullying, and dangerous situations in the neighborhood. The clubs may also address diversity, internet safety, guns and other weapons, and home safety. Children involved in the McGruff Club receive McGruff the Crime Dog items, activity sheets, safety letters from McGruff, and exclusive access to McGruff Club web pages, featuring special games and activities. The program's website offers games, stories, and advice on safety. Information for parents and educators is also available.

National Crime Prevention Council: Teens, Crime, and the Community

7th–12th Grade

<http://www.ncpc.org/programs/teens-crime-and-the-community/about-tcc>

The National Crime Prevention Council's TCC is an initiative that works to encourage young people across the country to create safer schools and neighborhoods and increase social responsibility in teens through education and service-learning projects. TCC is comprised of two major efforts: Community Works, and Youth Safety Corps. Community Works is a comprehensive, law-related crime prevention program that helps teens understand how crime affects them and their families, friends, and communities, and it involves them in crime prevention projects to help make their communities safer and more vital. Youth Safety Corps (YSC) provides an opportunity for youth interested in public safety and crime prevention to become involved in partnerships with school resource officers, school personnel, and community volunteers to assist in creating safe neighborhoods. YSC members analyze significant safety and security concerns in their schools and communities and address those issues to generate change.

National Fire Protection Association: Sparky

K–6th Grade

<http://sparky.org>

Sparky.org is a website that features games, fire safety information, playground safety tips, articles on personal safety, and a forum through which children can ask questions. The site also teaches kids how to create and utilize family escape plans and home safety checklists.

National Fire Protection Association: Risk Watch—Natural Disasters

Pre-K–8th Grade

<http://www.nfpa.org/catalog/product.asp?pid=RWNDSET>

Risk Watch: Natural Disasters teaches children in Preschool through Grade 8 and their families how to recognize, plan for, and respond to a variety of disasters so they can reduce the fear, anxiety, and losses that accompany those events. Students acquire practical life-saving skills relating to general preparedness, earthquakes, floods, hurricanes, tornadoes, wildfires, and severe winter storms. The curriculum is divided into five modules (pre-school, grades 1-2, grades 3-4, grades 5-6, and grades 7-8), and each module each module includes lesson cards, a lesson plan, classroom activities, evaluation instruments and other teacher module materials. The modules for K-6 include a CD with grade-specific student workbooks.

National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration: Weather for Kids and Students

K–12th Grade

<http://www.education.noaa.gov/sweather.html>

The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) has partnered with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) and others to develop online games and activities, coloring books, puzzles and materials for teachers and students to understand facts about the planet and our weather. The materials are designed for two age groups, grades K-5 and grades 6-12.

National Volunteer Fire Council: National Junior Firefighter Program

K–12th Grade

<http://juniors.nvfc.org/>

The National Junior Firefighter Program helps support fire departments by encouraging youth to volunteer and learn about fire, rescue, and emergency medical service departments in their communities. The program's website offers resources for youth to get involved and provides ideas for local fire departments to recruit volunteers. Youth active in the program can track their hours of service to receive national recognition and can apply for the National Junior Firefighter Scholarship.

New York City Office of Emergency Management: Ready New York for Kids K–5th Grade

http://www.nyc.gov/html/oem/html/ready/kids\_guide.shtml

The New York City Office of Emergency Management, in conjunction with the Department of Education, created the Ready New York: Kids' Guides, one for elementary kids and the other for students in middle and high schools. Each guide is available in nine different languages. The program also includes teachers' guides for both age groups as well as tear-out sections for use at home. Puzzles, games, and coloring pages are also included in the elementary version of the Ready New York for Kids program.

New Zealand Ministry of Civil Defence: What's the Plan, Stan? Ages 7–12

<http://www.whatstheplanstan.govt.nz/>

What's the Plan Stan? is New Zealand's disaster preparedness resource for schools and was developed in 2006 by the Ministry of Civil Defence & Emergency Management with invaluable input from teachers around the country. It is sent out free to all primary and intermediate schools, and focuses on schoolchildren aged 7-12. It has been written specifically for primary and intermediate school students to involve them in an educational program that focuses on disasters to help them to prepare, and gives them the skills to act in a safe manner. The Ministry of Civil Defence provides a handbook for teachers, including unit plans, templates and activities, a CD-ROM for teachers and students, including stories, interactive games, research material, tips for teachers and resources that can be incorporated into teaching unit plans, an interactive website, and teacher professional development workshops.

Points of Light Institute: Youth & Family Programs K–12th Grade

<http://www.handsonnetwork.org/volunteers/youthandfamily>

The Points of Light Institute offers information and ideas on how families and youth can jumpstart volunteer efforts. The organization also offers Kids Care Clubs, which empower children to engage in service projects. Points of Light features a Youth Leadership Institute, which offers lessons and exercises on community needs analysis, goal setting, team building, project planning, decision making, and other leadership dynamics. The final elements of the leadership institute include a community service project, developed and implemented by the participants, and a graduation ceremony. Points of Light's website also offers a list of resources, information, and opportunities for youth interested in community service.

Ready Houston

K–5th Grade

<http://www.readyhouston.tx.gov/schoolready/index.html>

These materials include classroom lessons and take-home activities divided into three modules (K-1 grade, 2-3 grades, 4-5 grades). The lessons can be used for a one-day activity or as a complete unit over several days. The lessons offer an opportunity for a school-wide program. Each element of the curriculum serves to reinforce the core message of Make a Plan, Build a Kit, and Stay Informed.

Serve DC: Commander Ready Program

K–8th Grade

<http://www.serve.dc.gov/cnccs/cwp/view,a.1197,q.557987.asp>

The Commander Ready program is a specialized component of the Washington, DC Neighborhood Corps and Citizen Corps programs designed to educate and engage children ages 5-13 in emergency preparedness. The program is intended for implementation in the home and at school, and was introduced in DC public schools during the 2007–2008 school year. The Commander Ready curriculum includes activities, workshops, and an animated DVD featuring the Ready Team to teach children how to prepare for emergencies and disasters, and how to prevent disaster damage. The Commander Ready program is structured to fit into the normal school curriculum with four separate modules each lasting forty-five (45) minutes, totaling 2-3 total hours of lessons over four school weeks.

Sesame Workshop: Let's Get Ready! Planning Together for Emergencies

Pre-K

<http://www.sesamestreet.org/ready/>

Sesame Street's Sesame Workshop created Let's Get Ready! Planning Together for Emergencies in collaboration with the Department of Homeland Security's Ready Kids initiative and the Ad Council. The Let's Get Ready program is primarily targeted towards 3 to 5-year-olds and provides multiple media resources available in English and Spanish, including a Sesame Street DVD, a magazine for parents and caregivers, and activity books for kids. The goal is to help the entire family prepare for emergencies and offer ways young children can contribute to an emergency readiness plan.

United States Power Squadrons: USPS 4 Kids

K–8th Grade

<http://usps4kids.org/default.aspx>

USPS 4 Kids is a website designed to introduce children to boating and water safety behaviors, including spotting environmental hazards and practicing smart safety and rescue techniques. The site provides games and activities to teach safe boating for children of all ages.

USA on Watch

K–Adult

<http://www.usaonwatch.org>

Neighborhood Watch programs frequently offer programs targeted towards youth, such as athletic activities, drug prevention programs, and tutoring. The main goal of these programs is to provide young people with activities that provide them with opportunities to increase their skills and self esteem. Some communities have organized youth crime watch programs, which train students in crime prevention strategies. Additional program topics may include gun awareness, conflict management, peer mediation, drug and gang prevention, peer pressure, and general safety.

Volunteers in Police Service: Youth-Related Activities

K–12th Grade

http://www.policevolunteers.org/volunteer/?fa=volunteer\_activities

VIPS offers opportunities for youth to become involved in local police services by participating in programs such as youth citizen academies, school-based programs such as DARE, after-school programs, and internships. Local VIPS programs also offer junior police academies, youth crime watch programs, youth accountability boards, youth camps, law enforcement exploring posts, mentoring programs, and police athletic league programs.

Wisconsin: Center for School, Youth and Citizen Preparedness

Ages 13–18

<http://www.citizenpreparedness.org>

Wisconsin's Responding to Emergency And Disasters with Youth (READY) program is coordinated by the Center for School, Youth, and Citizen Preparedness. Students learn about their potential role in preparing for, responding to, and recovering from an emergency situation, and have the opportunity to put what they've learned to use in a mock disaster exercise. The program has taught hundreds of students the skills they need to stabilize any injuries they may have suffered before moving on to assist others during and after emergency situations until professionals arrive. Students also learn to identify the hazards most likely to occur and reduce potential hazards in and around the home and school. They receive training in safety and injury prevention, first aid, CPR, and the use of an automatic external defibrillator. The program also teaches youth how to respond to natural and manmade disasters and develops their leadership skills to affect change through higher education after graduation. Youth are encouraged to lead community prevention efforts, increase their interest in health and public safety careers, volunteer in their communities through service learning projects.

READY has trained nearly 1,000 Wisconsin youths in preparedness through courses taught at various locations, including schools, community centers, and summer camps. The program trains middle and high school youth, ages 13–18, escorted by advisors.

Other Publications

American Academy of Pediatrics: Family Readiness Kit, 2nd Edition

<http://www.aap.org/family/frk/frkit.htm>

This kit, offered by the American Academy of Pediatrics, is a set of materials formatted for parents/families to use at home for students of all grades. It includes topics such as Caring for your Family, Understanding Disasters, Disaster Fact Sheets, 4 Steps to Prepare for Your Family, Family Disasters Supplies List, Families: The First Resource, When Your Child Needs EMS, and National and Local Resources.
